

There are several areas around the country where I listen to K-LOVE radio on FM translators. The use of FM translators by this listener-supported station reduces their operating expenses and allows for providing service in more areas. K-LOVE provides positive, uplifting music and commentary that is family-safe and spiritually encouraging. Please do not let LPFM stations receive priority over FM translator stations which are already broadcasting. Thank you.